7. 1981 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

7 (i)

The meeting was advised that 11 nominations have been received for 10 Council vacancies including that of representatives of the Cooperative Advisory Council.

One nomination was received for each of the Trading and Credit Cooperative representations.

Three nominations were received for the Producer Cooperative representative. A ballot will be necessary. The unsuccessful two nominees will then be eligible for election as general Councilors making seven nominations for six vacancies.

It was agreed:

Voting - would be by secret ballot

- would be on "first past the post" basis

- would be restricted to one nominated voting representative per member.

That Mr. Greer be the returning officer.

7 (ii)

Nominee of Advisory Council

Council was advised that as the Registrar had indicated the Cooperative Advisory Council would not nominate a representative to the Federation Council. Rule 27(a) para 1 has to be amended.

Notice of Special resolution for the Annual General Meeting was given by M/s Rundle and Slattery that:

Para 1 Rule 27(a) be deleted and the following substituted:

The Federation shall be controlled by a Council of ten members, three of whom shall be industry Councilors, six shall be general Councilors and one shall be appointed on an annual basis by the elected Councilors from the members of the Cooperative Advisory Council of Victoria.

8. 1981 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Council agreed to describe this function as a Conference rather than a 'Congress' as provided in the Federation Rules.

200 printed brochures of the Conference have been distributed. Council agreed a minimum number of delegates for the Conference to proceed would be 60.
